

New Additions to Serve You Better

RED LEDGES REALTY, THE ON-SITE REAL ESTATE SALES OFFICE IN THE HEBER VALLEY-PARK CITY PRIVATE COMMUNITY, IS PLEASED TO ADD A RED LEDGES PROPERTY OWNER TO THE FULL-TIME, DEDICATED SALES TEAM.

Juli Taylor is a proud Red Ledges property owner and member who has watched Red Ledges develop into a premier Rocky Mountain community. Growing up in Texas, Juli always had a passion for the mountains. Summer hiking trips and winter ski trips were always too brief. When her husband's business brought them to Utah, her dream of living in the mountains became reality. After selling real estate in Park City and Heber Valley, Juli decided to join the Red Ledges team this Fall. When she is not working with clients to achieve their dreams, she and her husband, Kary, will likely be playing golf or tennis and enjoying the amenities with their friends at Red Ledges.

Juli was just one of the new additions to the sales and marketing team this year. Long-time Park City real estate professional Mike Varoz and Red Ledges Club Concierge (and former mortgage broker) Cynthia Wilcox joined RLR as Sales & Marketing Associates in October, and Bill Houghton, the SVP of Marketing at famed Kiawah Island, SC, joined Red Ledges Realty in July as VP and Broker in Charge. Coupled with the longer-tenured, full-time sales executive team of Chris Maddox, Chris Beardsley, Mike Wood and Mike Tully (who work exclusively at and for Red Ledges, and who have been involved in over 98% of the sales in the community) and our in-house design and marketing staff, Red Ledges Realty's dedicated team is the best resource for matching buyers and sellers in the community.
